BAY ST. LOUIS, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1920.

TWENTY-NINTH YEAR—NO. 13.

ATHLETIC EVENT EXTRAORDINARY FOR BAY ST. LOUIS—FIELD DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 1

MAYOR HAS PROCLAIMED HALF HOLIDAY — CONNIE MACK'S PHILADELPHIA BASE BALL (AMERICAN LEAGUE) TEAM WILL CROSS BATS WITH CHARLIE FRANK'S ATLANTA TEAM (SOUTHERN LEAGUE) — ATHLETIC EVENT BIGGEST IN HISTORY OF BAY ST. LOUIS TO TAKE PLACE AT NEW ATHLETIC PARK.

Thursday, April 1st, it has been decreed by the powers that be and officially proclaimed by the mayor of the city, will be Field Day in Bay St. Louis, and it will be the first of a series of events at the city's new athletic park. It will mark the formal opening of the park, and no affair could better celebrate the event than a game of the national sport—and by such celebrities as the stars of the Connie Mack's Philadelphia team, representing Philadelphia in the National League, and Charlie Frank's Atlanta team, representing the Atlanta club in the Southern League.

During the early hours of the afternoon on the day of the athletic exercises to mark the opening of the park, there will be a parade. This will give the public a chance to see Charlie Frank, the "Giddy" of base ball in the Southern League, and Connie Mack, the shrewdest baseball manager in the world—the man who won five consecutive American League pennants and four world series. Each manager will head his baseball club.

After the parade, out at Athletic Park there will be a 100-yard dash, a 220-yard dash, in which some of the best runners in the world will participate. Philadelphia has some excellent runners, but Atlanta has one of the champion runners of the world—Guyon, the star Georgia Tech runner and all-American football player. The interest in this race will rest between "Bill" Stack, our own champion 100-yard runner, and Guyon, together with the 100-yard runners on the Philadelphia. There will also be competitive races around the bases on time.

S. S. C. Team Will Play Kila Boys. After the races, St. Stanislaus College star team, with Milton Phillips in the box, will play the first game with the Kila team. Interestingly, the team that game the champions of the Southern League, the Atlanta baseball team, our adopted team, will play Philadelphia, American team. The American team will come here forty strong and in that game you will have the pleasure not only of having some of the best ball players in the world, but of seeing in action the two greatest managers in the world. Each will direct his team from the bench, and both teams are going to play "for blood." Frank has decided that on that day, he has got to beat Connie Mack, just to show his adopted town what he can do. Mack has vowed that he will not do it.

At the park, the ladies of the town will serve refreshments, ice cream, cakes, sandwiches, coffee, etc. Everybody ought to be provided with enough money to purchase some of the best pastries, candy, etc., which will be cooked and donated by the best housewives of the town. The prettiest girls will be there to wait on you.

This is an opportunity for everyone to come out and help the home town, and to help pay for the improvements made on our athletic field, and for the maintenance of the park.

The Mayor has issued a proclamation, making Thursday, April 1st, a half holiday. All banks have been requested to close, and so have all merchants, after 12 o'clock. The most prominent merchants will be in the parade.

Only The Beginning of An Effort. This Field Day will be the beginning of our efforts to make Bay St. Louis the athletic town of the State of Mississippi. Every one must come out and help; everyone with town pride will come.

There will be a big delegation from St. Louis, Logansport and all points along the coast. Business will be suspended in Bay St. Louis from 12 to 6:30 P. M. This will be one of the eventful days in the city's history. You will be conspicuous by your absence.

Thursday will be the acid test. It will be the day you are to show your loyalty to the town; to show that you are with those who are aiming for clean sports and a bigger and better town; it will identify you as being with that endeavor and effort which is striving to put Bay St. Louis on the map. It has been told in The Echo columns how a band of men united their efforts and built the athletic park. Now the cooperation of the progressive citizens of St. Stanislaus College, how a vast piece of land was purchased, and the work of raising funds to pay therefor entered upon. It was an undertaking of the first magnitude, but not too big for those who dared obstacles. However, there is yet remaining. You will show your spirit Thursday attending the athletic exercises and financially you will be doing your duty to your town and its townpeople. We feel confident our townspeople will be there in full force. They have never failed heretofore.

LOCAL OIL COMPANY RECEIVES WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT.

Article in Last Issue of The Echo Telling of Organization of Banderet Oil Company and Its Proposed Operations.

BRINGS FORTH EXPRESSIONS OF COMMENDATION.

Expressions of Good Will Are By Letter and By Word—Man From Away Asks to Come In as Purchaser of Stock.

Many expressions of good will and best wishes for success have come to the incorporators of the Banderet Oil Company, of Bay St. Louis, to begin for oil in the immediate future at Wharton county, Texas.

Last week's issue of The Echo contained the intentions and plans of the company, and the public reading of the article has since expressed itself in favor of the company and its proposed operations.

Letters of encouragement, expressions of good wishes and others of a congratulatory tone have come to the director officers of the company and similar expressions by word been numerous.

It is gratifying indeed to note that Bay St. Louis is going to stand by its own people interested and fostered the project of the company. This is best evidenced by the substantial manner in which subscriptions for the company's stock at $50 a share is beginning to come in. In fact the capital of the company is being paid in so fast that it is expected the work of building the giant derrick, preparatory to drilling, will be started within the next two weeks or more.

The Banderet Oil Company has appointed its selling agents, and these representatives report excellent results.

Water in Wharton County at Thirty Feet Is Impregnated With Oil.

Among the several unsolicited letters received by the president of the Banderet Oil Company during the week is the following, which shows evidence of oil at a depth of only 30 feet below the surface.

New Orleans, La., March 20, 1920. Mr. Chas. C. Moreau, Banderet Oil Company, Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Dear Sir:—I am interested in your proposed operations in Wharton county, Texas, in search for oil, and would like to know if my land is near where you intend drilling.

I owned and lived on my 20 acres which is in Lavaca county, one mile from Provident City, Texas, which is in Wharton county. When I lived there a few years ago, I sunk a well 30 feet for water and when it was dug out the water was so strongly impregnated with oil that it was not palatable, the oil plainly visible on the top of a vessel full of water, after standing a short while, so I naturally think you are going to meet with success.

Hoping to hear from you and wishing your company success.

(Signed) RAYMOND GRACE, No. 6029 West End Blvd.

The reply to Mr. Grace showed that the Banderet Oil Company is going to drill for oil at Hungerford, not a very great distance from the land referred to above.

This Gentleman Wishes Stock Because Mr. Banderet Is "True Blue" Oil Man.

Mr. George R. Rea, treasurer of the Banderet Oil Company, received the appended letter from Hahnville, La., and the gentleman is knocking at the company's door, asking if he can come in for a little stock. "This is a wise man. He is not waiting to be asked to buy stock in the Banderet Oil Company; he is not waiting for the selling representative to call, for he must well know that there might not be enough shares to go around. It is hard to tell what will happen to our own Bay St. Louis. And it will unless they be quick to act. The letter follows:

Hahnville, La., March 18, 1920. Mr. George R. Rea, Banderet Oil Company, Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Dear Sir: I see that among a few of our good business men are going to form an oil company, which I think will be a success for the gentlemen connected with same are substantial fellows and the man behind the bat, Mr. Banderet, is a "true blue" oil man. I would like to have a little oil stock in your undertaking, if you could let me in kindly let me hear from you regarding same. I am an old Bay boy, and as such appreciate your move.

I have stock in several small oil enterprises, which after so long a time, played out, but I still have faith and think your future is excellent for you have a good man at the foundation.

Hoping to hear from you regarding same, with kindest regards, I am, Yours very truly, (Signed) F. J. ROEMER, M. D. Sentiment is unanimous in favor of Mr. Banderet as an oil man. His extensive experience in the oil fields of Louisiana and Texas. That he is a "true blue" oil man, as expressed in the letter, is a fact which cannot be denied.

It is gratifying to note that Bay St. Louis is going to stand by its own people interested and fostered the project of the company. This is best evidenced by the substantial manner in which subscriptions for the company's stock at $50 a share is beginning to come in. In fact the capital of the company is being paid in so fast that it is expected the work of building the giant derrick, preparatory to drilling, will be started within the next two weeks or more.

IMPRESSIONS OF BAY ST. LOUIS AND ITS PEOPLE BY CLIFF WHEATLEY, OF ATLANTA

NOTED METROPOLITAN EDITOR WHILE VISITING BAY ST. LOUIS WRITES HIS IMPRESSIONS OF CITY AND PEOPLE—BAY ST. LOUIS SPIRIT COMPARES WITH ATLANTA'S, HE SAYS —WHO'S WHO IN CHARLEY FRANK'S ATLANTA CLUB—THE VISITING NEWSPAPERMEN, WHO THEY ARE AND THE IR SPECIAL TALENTS.

Written Especially for The Sea Coast Echo BY CLIFF WHEATLEY

Spectator Editor, The Constitution, Atlanta.

This story is affectionately dedicated to impressions.

Impressions, as we have come to term a "feeling" we experience when we are meeting something new, or becoming acquainted with some individual or community unknown to us, are divided into three classifications—good, bad and indifferent.

Here we will deal with only the first class, for good impressions are the only ones the members of the Atlanta Baseball Club and the newspaper men who are following the daily developments of the Cracker training season, have come across since we have crossed the long trestle and settled to SOLID comfort in this hospitable little city.

Gratitude is the quality that all of us feel in thanking the residents of Bay St. Louis for the many acts of kindness, the many good turns they have done for us since we arrived, and it will be with this attitude, the twenty odd members of the Atlanta party, will leave the city when the period of preparation for the long summer's work is completed.

A visitor to any city is prone to form opinions of the community to pass judgment on the outlook of the town, and the result of this hasty observation is the immutable estimate of the municipality he carries with him in his visits to other sections of the country. If our opinion stands for anything, community builders its boosters by the impression it makes on the visitor, and as the rule operates both ways, the "knockers" arise from the same source.

Taken collectively, twenty opinions forming impressions might have a little influence in aiding or hindering the progress of a city, but twenty individual impressions, representing every section of the United States, all careful observers of civic pride and municipal spirit when they return to their respective homes, are certain to give their impressions of Bay St. Louis, and there is little doubt in the visitor's mind that these estimates will be favorable to the city of Bay St. Louis, her ideals, constructive plans and community foresight.

One of the many "reasons" for the single organization will have some effect on the future of the town, and every member of the Cracker clan will have many words of praise for the things they have observed around the city they are at present practicing in. Of course, "reasons" every day on the streets of the town.

One of the "reasons" can be found at almost any time of the day, when the players assemble after the workouts of the day. We refer to the honor the Mayor, R. W. Webb, Mayor Webb loses most of his inner dignity, so much so that of him, when he is attending to the weight matters of municipal administration, the minute he crosses the threshold of the Klock Hotel, where the Frankmen have established headquarters, he forgets that he has a city council to worry over a street department in the city, and that he is a "buddy" who must listen carefully. These worries Mayor Webb smiles away, when the merry patter from an overworked piano reaches his hearing.

After that the mayor is just about the most human, good-fellow the men connected with the Atlanta Baseball club have ever known. All of us to Mayor Webb are real "buddies." This term, one of the most expressive of the descriptive words in the service men using the word, war, so comprehensive to those who have seen their "buddies" sacrificed precious life that the shell pitted trails of the Argonne were safe for their comrades, who were pushing toward democracy's final objective, tells concisely what Mayor Webb is doing for the welfare and comfort of the Cracker boys. None other but a "buddy" would do for us what the mayor has undertaken to accomplish, and that the players appreciate his attention is putting in words totally inadequate. Perhaps it would be more appropriate to say that of all the "reasons" why the players of the Atlanta Baseball club will depart with such good impressions of Bay St. Louis, Mayor Webb is the chief one.

Where the Population is Only Three Thousand.

The writer has never been told the population of this city, and he craves forgiveness of the reader if his estimate of three thousand does Bay St. Louis an injustice. But he believes that the "three thousand" of the liveliest cities ever assembled in one community will be found within the environs of Bay St. Louis. Every citizen of the city appears to devote himself to ideas that work for the betterment of the town. Personal covetousness, petty jealousy of his neighbor's possessions and the practice of improving his own fortune without first thinking of what good effect will come to Bay St. Louis, are bad features of the average town visitor to Hancock county's capital city never seen.

They must exist, but we are not engaged at present in believing they do. This story revolves around impressions, and the only ones we have formed fall under the "good" classification.

Many of the men connected with the "Cracker" crew are residents of Atlanta, staunch supporters of that "Atlanta Spirit" that brought our city through the despairing years of the Civil war to her present position, the Gate City of the South. That miracle was not brought about through the idle dreams of the star-gazers that might have seen visions of a great city on the site of the little hamlet of Marietta, Ga., a few ungodly workers, confident that a great future lay before the village, prostrated and helpless from the ravages of the invading hordes, began their labors, and "Atlanta Spirit" was the chief tool they used. The towering skyline of Georgia's capital city, the throngs that seethe through her business streets, and the great prosperity of her bankers and commercial establishments, factories and other industries are the harvest of the seed planted years ago by the founders of her biggest asset, "Atlanta Spirit."

The writer, with pardonable pride, that we are proud of our own achievements of Bay St. Louis. The writer speaks of "Atlanta Spirit" because he believes there is the same kind of municipal feeling in Bay St. Louis. And further, that results along the same lines will be accomplished by the citizens of this city, who are certain that in the years to come the Bay will come into the heritage that is rightfully hers. Municipal development in the early stages is a slow process, but when the golden tide begins to come in, the city is calamity that can halt the triumphal march of progress.

The Banks of Bay St. Louis Are An Indication of Prosperity.

On all sides in Bay St. Louis the observant visitor sees signs of prosperity. For instance, he sees two banks, one with resources nearly a million dollars and the other, a comparatively new establishment, showing assets that exceed a half million dollars.

Both banks paying large dividends, one the writer is informed, declaring 30 per cent net gain during last year. They can be but one explanation: Bay St. Louis is prosperous; the citizens thrive. The two qualities run hand in hand. For where there is thrift prosperity will come in, in our own section of the Southland, it is unusual that a city of Bay St. Louis population possesses more than one bank. And the resources of that banking house, except in rare occasions, never exceed the quarter million dollar mark. Two solid banks in a town of this size create an everlasting impression on the average visitor, and the players of the Atlanta Baseball team formed good opinions of this feature of Bay St. Louis' progress that will not be forgotten in the excitement of the Southern League pennant chase opening April 14th.

As to the Local Press.

Then, the writer usually asks the name of the weekly paper, when he has been in the town more than three hours. Notice, we said "paper," not "papers." It is so seldom we see a city of three thousand population that can support even one paper, it's more or less of a question to think that two papers are located in Bay St. Louis, and both of them are good ones. We lose some of our pride for Atlanta when it is brought to us that with a population of approximately 300,000, we support only three newspapers, while the little city on the bay maintains two weekly publications. It is one of the mainstays of Atlanta's champion team of 1918, and immediately after the close of the season went to the big leagues, where, was given a workout with Connie Mack's Athletics of Philadelphia. Manager Mack still holds "strings" on Pitcher Roberts and it is generally believed he will be one of the men who will perform in the shadow of the "big tent" next year.

A Bay St. Louis Product.

The first basemen are H. Brenner and Theo Tandy, the latter a Bay St. Louis product. Each of the players selected of the winning contender a difficult one. Brenner is a perfect fielder at the position, and the Hancock county pastime, in the terms of the diamond "picks a wicked well possess qualities that will make the top with the willow!"

H. H. Mohr is performing at second base for the Crackers, and is showing much promise. The third basemen are Harry Damrau, a member of last year's team, and Walter Mitty, one of the new-comers. Harry only recently arrived in camp; his home in New York caught fire a few days before he was scheduled to leave, and his presence was required to straighten the insurance affairs.

Zippy King is looking after the Cracker affairs at short stop, and he is no uncertain performer at the position. King was with the Atlanta club only last year, but was "famed out" to another team for more experience. His work shows great improvement over 1919, and scries unanimously predict that he will be one of the men who will wear Cracker colors during the approaching race.

The outfielders are Joe Guyon, R. Craig, Captain Mayer, Eugene Savage and Hardin Herndon. Guyon is an Indian, a graduate of Carlisle Training school, and the Georgia Tornado football team, representing Tech in 1917, and which swept over the gridiron material of the nation. Guyon-Von apposition as all-American player, and only recently was named as their best football player any college in the South ever produced. This is the first year in professional baseball, but he is making a great record.

Outfielder Herndon, a member of the 1917 Cracker team, has not reported for duty, but will join the team in Atlanta. The last member of the team is Gordon Powell, a Georgia boy, and one of the most promising in the Atlanta camp. Powell is at present confined to his room at the Klock Hotel, suffering from an injury to his foot, but local physicians who have examined the wound, express themselves as confident the youngster will don his uniform at an early date.

The Accompanying Scries.

Morgan Blake, sporting editor of the Atlanta Journal, Henry Vance, sporting editor of the Atlanta Georgian, and the writer are the press representatives with the Crackmen. Mr. Blake has been sporting editor of the Journal for four years, coming from Nashville, Tenn., where he was a political writer on the Banner. He is a graduate of Vanderbilt University and has been in Atlanta since 1910, having been sporting editor of the News for several years. He is a good story writer of note, and since he has been in Bay St. Louis has sold several stories to well-known publications. His latest story, "The Negro Dialect Effusion," is scheduled to appear soon in Saturday magazine.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Entertained at Home of Mrs. Roddy and Miss Strother Last Tuesday Afternoon.

Mrs. Roddy and Miss Strother entertained the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church on last Tuesday afternoon.

The following program, as prepared by Mrs. Boone, was rendered. Song—Faith Is the Victory. Devotional exercises—Mrs. Robinson.

Talk, Faith and Prayer—Mrs. Roddy. Scripture on Faith—By the members. Song—My Faith Looks Up to thee. The interest in woman's work seems to be increasing, and we will continue these social meetings as long as they seem productive of good. At the conclusion of the program our hostesses served refreshments, and we spent a very pleasant hour in Mrs. Roddy's home. Time and place of next meeting will be published and we hope all members and friends interested in this work will be present. Reporters.

Joseph, Ala. "For ten or twelve years I was almost a skeleton, caused by indigestion, dyspepsia, and general weakness. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured me. I commenced taking it and soon began to feel better. When I began to feel better, I weighed 115 pounds and could do a little work. By the time I had taken two bottles I could work a little and weighed 130 pounds. I continued its use and was as well as ever. I am very grateful for the good I have derived from the use of this remedy."

"It is the only medicine I have ever taken that did me any good."—Jno. H. Robinson, R. F. D. No. 5.

Birmingham, Ala.—"I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I have taken it as a blood purifier and as a 'spring tonic' and it was very beneficial to me. It not only built me up in health but drove all the impurities out of my system, purified my blood and did it in the right way. My general health was always better after taking 'Golden Medical Discovery.'—Geo. A. Palmer, 4006 Ave. E.

Montgomery, Ala.—"In the year 1910 I was sick enough to die and had been sick for five years. I went to different doctors but they did not reach my complaint. One doctor said I had gall trouble and would have to be operated upon, but before he decided to have the operation I wrote to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel at Buffalo, N. Y. Upon Dr. Pierce's advice I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it up, and felt like a new man. I bought two more and it cured me. I have been a well man ever since."—W. H. Bad Sickness Caused by Acid-Stomach

If people only realized the health-destroying power of acid stomach, so many cases of sickness and misery it causes could be avoided. Acid stomach would cause again, it is as certainly as they do, the first symptoms of acid-stomach—heartburn, sour, empty stomach, belching, food repeating, heartburn, etc. Whenever your stomach feels this way you should be sure in putting it to rights. If you don't, serious consequences will follow. Acid stomach causes indigestion, loss of appetite, loss of sleep, loss of energy, loss of vitality, loss of strength, loss of health, loss of life.

ROAD BUILDING

DIRT ROADS CARE IN SPRING

Proper Drainage is Chief Essential in Maintenance—Road Drag is Especially Useful.

The cardinal essential in spring maintenance of earth roads, especially those on heavy soils, is good drainage. So long as the water can be kept from penetrating deeply into these roads they will remain at least fairly passable. To accomplish this on average earth roads, however, is far from easy. During the early part of this season of the year rains are in the soil. Water from melting snows is perhaps even more penetrating than long-continued rains, while alternate freezing and thawing of the wet surface tends to increase the porosity of the soil and permit even more ready access of water into the foundation.

The chief attention of the road man must therefore be directed toward getting and keeping the water away from the road. So long as the foundation can be kept dry, even a heavy freeze followed by a rapid thaw will do little or no real damage to the road surface. A dry soil does not heave. The foundation will therefore still be solid, and the road will be able to sustain the traffic without serious rutting. On the other hand a saturated soil expands greatly on freezing, and when it thaws out has not only lost practically all power of sustaining the weight of traffic, but also is in an ideal condition for taking up or absorbing still more water, and thus forming still more mud.

During the early part of the season, as long as the weather is very rainy or there is melting snow on the ground it will pay to have the road man go over the road daily to see that the drains and side ditches do not become clogged and to note the need of any necessary repairs. A few minutes' work with a shovel may prevent a serious washout or damages, which, if not promptly checked, might make the road practically impassable.

The road drag or some other similar device finds its greatest usefulness during this season. It may be used to good advantage to clear the roadway of slush and melting snow and so prevent this water from soaking into

BACK HURT ALL THE TIME

Mrs. ELLI SAYS Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Removed The Cause.

Knoxville, Tenn.—"My back hurts me all the time, I was all run down, could not rest and my head ached. I was caused by female trouble. I was three years with these troubles and doctors did me no good. Your medicine helped my sister so she advised me to take it. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Liver Pills and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and now I am well, can rest heartily and work. I give you my thanks for your great medicines. You may publish my letter and I will tell everyone what your medicines did for me."—Mrs. PEARL HILL, 418 Jackson St., Knoxville, Tennessee.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

Rescued "Moses."

Catherine is just past three. At Sunday school recently she heard the story of Moses in the bulrushes. When she returned home she sought her favorite Teddy bear. A few minutes later the mother heard a big splash in the kitchen sink. Investigation disclosed her youthful demonstrator of biblical story justly engaged in rescuing the Teddy bear from an imaginary shoreline bordered with imaginary bulrushes.

"Him's Moses," the baby explained, as she tenderly drew the bear from his watery cradle. And Teddy has been Moses ever since.

MORE AND BETTER PASTURES

Problem in Coastal Plain Section of South Has Become Increasingly Important.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The pasture problem in the coastal plain section of the South must be solved to bring about agricultural utilization of these lands. The problem has become increasingly important since the high prices of feeds are more and more forcing attention to the only cheap feed—pasture. The bureau of plant industry has recently done a great deal of work along this line. The investigators have confirmed the bluegrass experiments in which it was shown that heavy pasturing was much the best method both agronomically and economically. Unfortunately, say the specialists, facilities for experiments and demonstrations are wholly inadequate in attempting to work out a system of better handling of northern pastures. On the coastal plains of the South, unless the soils are much affected by drought, continue the experts, carpet grass supplemented with lespedeza makes excellent pasture. Golden crown grass is also excellent. Clover and alfalfa made with the aid of new stripping machines to place carpet grass seed on the market in adequate quantity. Several newly introduced grasses are promising as pasture possibilities.

SAFEGUARDING SHEEP FLOCK

Large Number of Animals Lost Each Year From Some Preventable Disorder.

Thousands upon thousands of sheep die each year from a great variety of preventable causes. The killer dog is not the chief cause of loss. He may cause perhaps 1 per cent of the deaths due to accidental causes, but the most serious losses are attributable to ignorance and carelessness upon the part of the owner or his shepherd. Among the chief causes of loss may be mentioned lack of shelter for lambing ewes and their newborn lambs. A sudden snow or rain storm coming at lambing time often thins ewes and lambs exposed, and many deaths result.

PASTURAGE CUTS FEED BILLS

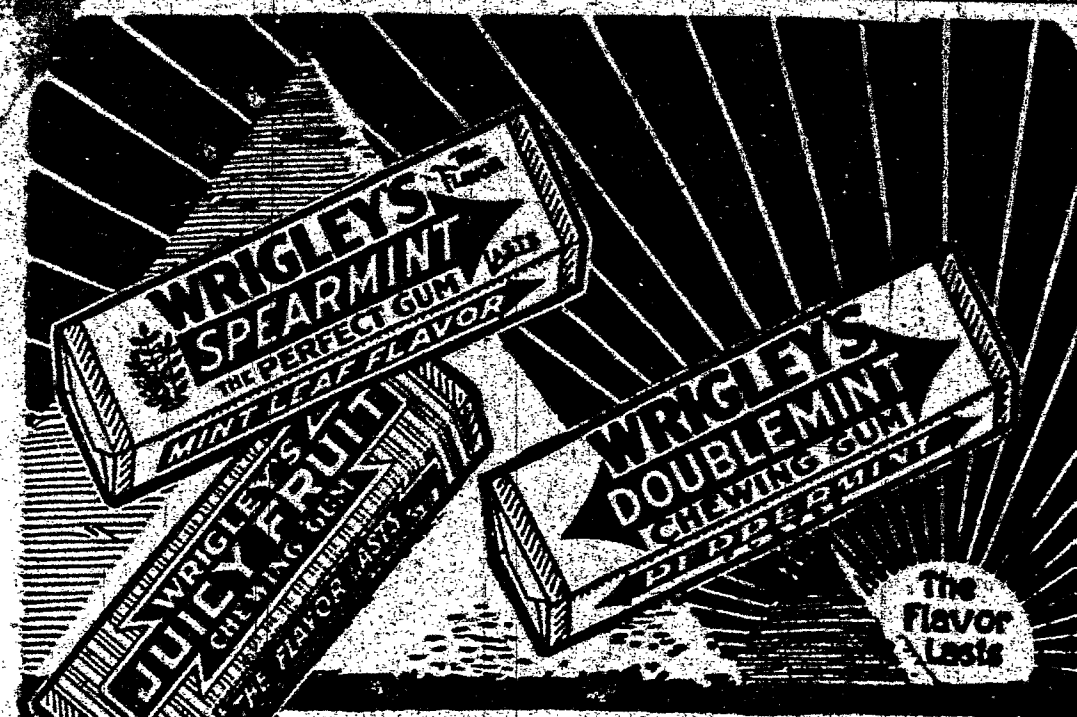

Cost of Pork Production Can Be Reduced by Providing Suitable Pasture for Hogs.

Farmers can reduce the cost of pork production next year by providing a suitable pasture for their hogs, says W. H. Peters of the animal husbandry division, University farm. Most pasture grasses are rich in protein. The call for high grain rations is therefore urgent a matter to be taken into consideration in these days of falling prices for hogs and pigs. Alfalfa and clover are best for growing pigs, but no matter how good a pasture is some grain must be fed if the hogs are to thrive and make profitable gains.

EASY MONEY ALWAYS SOUGHT

No Age in History When Rogues Were Not Laying in Wait to Fleeced the Unwary.

The origin of the confidence game is not easy to trace, observes a writer in the Saturday Evening Post. The Vedas and the Mediterranean classics reveal the ancient gods themselves as sad rascals. "Petronius" and the "Gesta Romanorum" contain descriptions of Latin rogues. Chaucer is forever dwelling on the trickery and scoundrelism of his contemporaries and in the succeeding era a whole literature of lawlessness had sprung up in Europe, reflecting the manners and methods of the engaging criminals of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, undoubtedly greatly romanticized. Lazarillo de Tormes in Spain, Gil Bias in France and Till Eulenspiegel in Germany are the archetypes.

England's Robin Hood is a quotable but less analogous figure. The early English novelists are, however, brimming with the stories of pickpockets who are the progenitors of the modern confidence man. The chaste Richardson has a type in his Clarissa. De Foe's Colonel Jack is of the stripe and so are the numerous pleasure-loving rogues or antiheroes of Fielding. And Stock left in his Roderick Random described with unpeppery exactness the work of a bumpy stealer.

A Lady Was Flat On Her Back With Terrible Spells, But Her Husband Got Cardui—And Now She Is Grateful.

McKinney, Texas.—Mrs. Mary Stephenson, of this place, states: "About a year and a half ago I was down in bed for six weeks, not able to sit up. I was flat on my back and had terrible spells. Why, it looked like I would die. At times I didn't know anything. I would get nervous. I couldn't bear anyone to talk to me. I would just jerk and shudder with nervousness across my back was so sore and ached me all the time. I would have a dizzy feeling. My limbs ached and I would get numb and feel so weak. I said to my husband I knew Cardui was good and I believed I had best try it."

He got me a bottle of Cardui, and when I had only taken one-half bottle of Cardui I felt stronger. I took a half a dozen bottles altogether, then in two weeks after I began taking I was up, in three I was doing my work. I praise Cardui for I believe it saved my life and I am grateful."

WITCH!

SOUTH IS TURNING AGAINST CALOMEL

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Responsible for Change for the Better.

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it," Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much, but if it fails to give relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.—Adv.

Playing for Safety.

Jim—You spend too much money on that girl. Remember girls frequently help a cheap blow in his coat and then marry the fellow that saves up.

Ed—I know. That's the reason I'm spending mine.

TIMELY ADVICE

Everyone needs VACHER-BALM this time of year as a preventive, or relief for Colds and Flu. It is undoubtedly the best thing to use.

20c in jars or tubes. Carry a tube in your pocket.

If you cannot get it locally send 30c stamps for a tube to E. W. VACHER, Inc., New Orleans, La.

Avoid imitations.—Adv.

A toothache will keep your mind on more persistently than a heartache.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers—No pain!

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Frezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Frezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.—Adv.

Make this resolution every morning: I am going to make this day count as never day counted before.

CITY ECHOES.

—Tomorrow Palm Sunday.
—Charlie Chaplin at the A. & G. Theatre to-night.

—Mr. Joseph O. Mauffray was a business visitor to Biloxi Thursday.
—Mrs. L. A. Fortner spent yesterday with friends and relatives in New Orleans.

—Miss A. Grignon and niece, Miss Amelie Lucas, were visitors to New Orleans Friday.
—Miss F. Hosmer is home from classes at New Orleans, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. B. P. Johnson, and is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. J. Ladner, in Carroll avenue.

—Mr. T. Ray Cary and T. Ray Cary, Jr., came over from Donaldsonville, La., Thursday to spend the day with the publisher of the Echo. Mr. Cary will return to Chicago today where he expects to dispose of his household effects since the death of his wife, which occurred last week in that city, and as a result of that moment of woman's supreme sacrifice for humanity.

—Mrs. A. Kergosien was taken to New Orleans during the week and underwent a surgical operation at the Presbyterian Hospital, and reports from her bedside are to the effect that she is doing well. Dr. Kergosien went down to New Orleans this morning to spend the day with his wife. The many friends of the family hope for her speedy recovery and return home.

—Tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock, at Athletic Park, the Atlanta baseball team, training in Bay St. Louis, will play with the men of the Atlanta Naval Station team of New Orleans, and a great game is promised. This will be the first formal appearance of the Atlanta boys and Bay St. Louis ought to turn out to welcome the boys and to see a good game.

—Bay St. Louisians cannot but appreciate the impressions of Mr. Cliff Wheatley of the Atlanta Morning Constitution, which he has so elegantly written in a special article for The Echo, and which appears on the first page of this issue. It is a splendid tribute to our people and their town and a compliment to the home paper that does not lose sight of Mr. Wheatley is a morning editor of the Constitution. He saw active service in Europe. He both educated and traveled; a man of fine intellect, of absorbing companionship, a man of such stamp and ability and still a young man he has a great future before him.

—Mr. C. T. Bienville, proprietor of the Evangeline Nurseries, St. Martinsville, La., was a visitor to Bay St. Louis during the early part of the week to confer with Mr. D. C. Wall, selling representative, who has been here several weeks. Mr. Bienville expressed much satisfaction at the business Mr. Wall secured here and over the county. A trip of inspection showed the tall plants, trees, etc. shipped from the Evangeline Nurseries and planted here are growing from good stock and are healthy. This was Mr. Bienville's first visit to Bay St. Louis, and he expressed his intention to have a recreation home here in future.

—Joseph Parilla, fondly known hereabouts and interestingly called "Little Bit" in baseball circles, whose exhibitions of ball playing from the time of his college days to the present, has attracted interest and won his team the game many times, after a try-out by Manager Frank's Atlanta team, has signed a contract to play professional baseball this summer. Just where Manager Frank will put him has not yet been stated, but one thing is certain he will put down a check of $125,000 per year in position as assistant to the manager in the office of the Atlanta Braves.

—The engagement of Mr. Clyde Drummond and Miss Agnes Lott, both of Kila, has been announced, the wedding to take place April 14th, at the residence of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lott, well-known and prominent residents of Kila, and where Mr. Lott is one of the leading and prosperous merchants.

—Governor Lee M. Russell has appointed W. A. McDonald and A. Kergosien, of Bay St. Louis, as delegates from Hancock county to the National Good Roads Association convention, which will be held at Hot Springs, Ark., April 12 to 13. The delegates from Mississippi, accompanied by Governor Russell and official party will leave Jackson at 1:30 P. M., April 11th on a special train chartered for the purpose.

—Mr. and Mrs. Emile J. Gex left here Sunday for Jackson, Miss., accompanied by Mrs. Gex's aged mother, called by the death of brother and son, J. A. Plunkett, whose sudden death was quite a shock to the many friends over the entire State. Only a few months previously Miss Mattie Plunkett, former librarian of the State, passed away, and the family have the deepest sympathy of all who know them in their double bereavement.

—The management of the A. & G. Theatre has had a force of workers engaged this week in putting the air dome in shape for the coming open air season, placing additional support to the structure and reinforcing the floor with new material. It is this morning to spend the day with his wife. The many friends of the family hope for her speedy recovery and return home.

—The advent of the Georgians ball players to Bay St. Louis has accelerated interest in the national sport, and the number of fans has increased manifold, with enthusiasm running high. The practice games daily by the Atlantans on the training diamond attracts many visitors, and the forthcoming games with the nine from St. Stanislaus College will prove a combination to break all records. The Crackers, with Sammy Mayer as captain, and the Rockaways from St. S. C. is "some" combination to conjure with. It spells excitement for you money.

—The death is noted of Margaret Ideell Roberts, beloved wife of Robert G. Ives, which sad event occurred Sunday, March 21st, at 1:10 A. M. the funeral taking place the afternoon following from the residence of Mrs. Edward Preston, sister of the deceased, in St. Charles avenue. Mrs. Ives was a native of Morgan Bay, La., and for the past two years resided at Gueydan, La., where her husband was principal of the city schools. For five years Prof. Ives was in charge of the city schools of Bay St. Louis and during that time resided here with his family, during which time Mrs. Ives became well-known and had many friends. The news of her demise will be received here with genuine sorrow, and Prof. Ives and his family of four children have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

—At a meeting of the officers and directors of the Hancock County Fair Association, held Monday night at the courthouse, with representatives of the colored population, it was decided and planned to hold two separate fairs for the county in Bay St. Louis this fall, one for and by the whites for two days, during the early part of October and the other by and for the colored during the early part of November. While the colored organization will work in a measure under the direction or auspices of the Fair Association, yet it will be an independent organization, and will be held in a separate place.

—The engagement of Mr. Clyde Drummond and Miss Agnes Lott, both of Kila, has been announced, the wedding to take place April 14th, at the residence of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lott, well-known and prominent residents of Kila, and where Mr. Lott is one of the leading and prosperous merchants.

CHARLIE FRANK IS PLEASED ON FIRST VISIT TO BALL CAMP

Big Chief of Atlanta Team, Training in Bay St. Louis, is Satisfied With Prospect for Another League Pennant.

CHAMPIONS HAVE SETTLED DOWN TO HARD GRIND.

Moving Picture Corporation Here Monday, Cut Men in Action—Other Data and Details By Morgan Blake.

Morgan Blake in Atlanta Journal. Bay St. Louis, Miss., March 22.—Charlie Frank, fair, fat and forty paid his first visit to the ball field Monday and watched his starliners perform. Charlie was in gay spirits and even went so far as to pose for the movies. Charlie has a pungent about three miles up the bay and he has grown so large that it is rather tedious to navigate himself, but he was out Monday with all of his old time pep and a good natured sarcasm.

"We'll be there again this season," said Charlie. "Tell the fans that I'm out after another pennant because the Atlanta fans are the greatest in the world."

Now I submit that is a whole lot for Charlie to say. The Dutchman is in better health than he has been in several years; he has been indulging himself since he came here in his only recreation which is fishing.

"I hear you boys caught a lot of fish yesterday," he said, "well, wait until the water gets a little warmer and I'll take you out in a big launch where you can catch 'em bigger than you are."

A Big Day Monday. The Crackers had a big day Monday posing for the movies. The boys thoroughly enjoyed the experience. Fortunately the fish were biting well, and Tracy Matthews, the photographer, got several views of the Crackers hauling in the funny fish. While the camera worked, views on the battlefield were taken and the situation down here was covered in Mr. Matthews's usual thorough style. It created quite a sensation in Bay St. Louis when the news got abroad that a movie man was here to take views of the city and the mayor, chief of police, and other city officials turned out to see that it was well done. These movies of the Crackers will be shown in Atlanta soon.

Advent of the Philadelphia Team. In a week or so the Philadelphia Athletics will come to Bay St. Louis for a game with the Crackers and the citizens are looking forward to this as one of the biggest days of the season.

The Crackers will leave here for home on April 5th and will spend the rest of the time until the opening of the season at Poncey Park. The Philadelphia Athletics will be at Poncey for five days before the Crackers get there.

Citizens of Bay are Sportmen in Every Sense. The citizens of Bay St. Louis are thorough in every sense of the word. The Bay St. Louis Athletic Club is a live wire organization. Walter J. Gex is president and George J. Toca is vice president and secretary. These two men, in connection with Mr. Gex or Bob Webb, were the prime movers in arranging for the Crackers' coming to this city to train, fixing up the ball field and arranging the hotel accommodations. After the Crackers leave the athletic club is to stage a big A. A. U. championship tournament for Southern athletes in track and swimming. The more you see of this city the more you realize how ideal this location is from any standpoint.

The Usual for a Newspaper Man. "One of the liveliest of the citizens is Mr. Charles G. Moreau, the editor of the Sea Coast Echo, the local weekly paper." Mr. Moreau can't do enough for the Atlanta press representatives. He gets out one of the best weekly papers for the city. Mr. Moreau is also president of the city. It is very unusual for a newspaper man to be interested in business ventures where any money is liable to be made, but Mr. Moreau is the exception.

The A. & G. Theatre. At 7:30 o'clock every night a large part of the population assembles at the moving picture show here, and you have to come early if you want a seat. When you are strangers in a strange land the first thing you look for is a movie house. The Crackers always attend the movie show, and the feature picture was Mr. Sessue Hayakawa, the Jap actor, in the "Courageous Coward."

The Crackers will play their second game next Saturday, when the boys will take a little trip to Pascagoula to see and play the team of that town. On Sunday the Crackers will stage a game in Bay St. Louis with the New Orleans naval training team.

A. & G. THEATRE Program for Next Week.

TUESDAY, March 30—"Broken Commandments and Mutt & Jeff."

BAPTIST CHURCH REVIVAL.

Just what Ford service is, and why it is different from ordinary garage service. The Ford Dealer is a part of the Big Ford Family. He carries a large stock of genuine Ford parts for repairs and replacements, and he uses only genuine parts because he knows the imitation parts aren't dependable.

He has a thoroughly-equipped, up-to-the-minute garage with tools that enable his Ford mechanics to efficiently and properly make any repair—from minor adjustment to a complete overhaul.

Now we are the Authorized Ford Dealers—a part of the great Ford Service organization which was formed chiefly to put within each community a dealer who would have more than passing interest in Ford repairs and adjustments. Drive or phone and we'll come for you car.
